Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 / Disclosure & Barring Service

Due to the nature of the work for which you are applying, i.e. as an employee in an establishment providing further education, it is required that you should reveal information about all previous criminal convictions, cautions and bind-overs, including those regarded as 'spent'. It is provided by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (exceptions) Order 1975, paragraph 3, that none of the provisions of Section 4(2) of the 1974 Act apply in relation to questions to assess the suitability of persons for such employment. A criminal record will not necessarily be a bar to obtaining a position as each case is looked at on its particular circumstances and background.

PLEASE ANSWER

Have you EVER been convicted of a criminal offence or are you the subject of criminal charges? YES NO

Moulton College is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Work in an FE College invariably involves regular contact with persons aged under 18 and as such a Disclosure & Barring Service (criminal record check) will also be requested in the event of a successful application. Failure to disclose a conviction could result in dismissal or disciplinary action by the College. Any information given, however, will be treated as completely confidential and will be considered only in relation to an application for positions to which the order or disclosure applies.

If your answer to the above was YES, please visit www.moulton.ac.uk/contact-us/work-for-us/job-vacancies to find a self-declaration form.
